Letter no R.O.C 579-28 dated 4.7.28 requesting orders as to whether the privilege, given to the Inamdars in regard to their recommendation for 50% of the nominated members of the Village panchayats, and the appointment of Chairman to the V.P, has still to continue despite the abolition of the Mohatarfa tax.

The D.C. State that some of the Inamdars in Belur & Alur Taluks do not agree to surrender their right to levy Mohatarfa tax and the Amildars of Manjarabad and Arkalgud Taluks have not yet reported anything in the matter. On account of the above it is said that the nomination of members & appointment of Chairman in the to the V. Panchayats in these Taluks are pending.

If approved it may be directed that since the Inamdars have to relinquish their recognised right to levy Mohatarfa whether they give it up of their own accord by relinquishing or whether they give it up due to the abolition of the tax they form, may be given the privilege as before
